Disclaimer: Sponsored by the CAMC Health System Employee Committee. All CAMC Health System Employees, retirees, medical staff and their employees of WVU and immediate family members of the aforementioned are eligible to participate. Some activities may be restricted to those 18 years of age and over. All times are approximate and are subject to change. Seating is limited.
Day 1 - Travel to Pigeon Forge and check into your hotel in the afternoon. The Opening Event for this three night celebration is sponsored by Dolly Parton. It is a very special "Salute to Vietnam Veterans" at the Dixie Stampede. Before the dinner show, you will enjoy a magnificent presentation of Service Branch Flags and the Stars & Stripes. Plus a very special greeting to the Soldiers of the Vietnam Era by tonight's celebrity guest, one of your own, the Voice of Armed Forces Radio, the real guy from Good Morning Vietnam, Adrian Cronauer. (D)

Day 2 - Each morning there will be a Reunion Hall (Veterans only), a place to gather, a place for soldiers to connect with long lost but not forgotten comrades in arms. Others can shop or explore Pigeon Forge.

Note: Every Veteran should register so that we have info to share with others, and so we can properly organize parade space. We need to know your branch of service, years in-country and unit#. We also need to know if you are marching or riding in the parade, as well as whether a spouse is in attendance so we can provide preferred seating.

Additional Note: There are very few Parade Seats groups should bring folding chairs or be prepared to stand streetside and cheer for our troops.

The afternoon features the signature event the "Welcome Home Parade." This free parade is available to every Vietnam Vet. You will march, or ride on troop transports, organized by their respective branch of service. Of special note, the U.S. Marine Corp Band has been invited.

Tonight, you will enjoy the Hatfield & McCoy's Dinner Feud or Smith Family Dinner theater; or you will attend the Smoky Mountain Opry or the Comedy Barn with dinner at a local restaurant before the curtain rises. (B,D)

Day 3 - The morning again starts at the Reunion Hall for our soldiers, and shopping and local attractions for families. (continued)

Note: The Titanic Museum Attraction has a special offer to Veterans’ Wives, to attend a Titanic Breakfast Tea served on board by the First Class Passengers Wait Staff on Wed. & Thurs call 800-381-7670.

Tonight, enjoy the Gala Vietnam Veterans Charity Dinner. This event includes a charity check presentation to the Vietnam Veterans of America, a guest speaker and music (to be announced.)

After dinner you close out the day with a Patriotic Tennessee Celebrity Concert featuring the best performers and recording artists in the Smokies including: James Rogers & T.G. Shepherd.

The featured artist is Aaron Tippin, best known for his hits "You Gotta Stand for Something" and "Where the Star and Stripes and The Eagle Fly." Tonight's star studded concert will feature music, patriotic songs, spectacular staging and special effects, that make it a fitting tribute to our Heroes of Vietnam. (B,D)

Day 4 - Depart for home after breakfast this morning. (B)
